

Seiji Ozawa Hall at Tanglewood

The Music Center at Strathmore

Koka Booth Amphitheater at Regency Park

Bowdoin College Recital Hall

Babson College Performing Arts Center

Forrestal-Bowld Music Building, Phillips Academy

Williams College '62 Center for Theatre and Dance

Lincoln Center Plaza Theater

Lowell Performance Pavilion

Seaside Community Performing Arts Center

The Music Center at Strathmore Montgomery County, MD

This 2,000-seat Concert Hall and Educational Facility serves as the second home for the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra, as well as a venue for local orchestras and popular artists. Several community arts organizations will share the Educational Facility, including the Montgomery County Youth Orchestra, Masterworks Chorus, and the Summer Performing Arts Institute. Grimm + Parker Architects is the Associate Architect. (190,000 s.f.; 1976 seats)

- > Project Sheet
- > Download Printer Friendly PDF
- > <http://www.strathmore.org/>

2007 Prague Quadrennial: Selected for Exhibition on Music Facilities; 2006 Award for Interior Design, Boston Society of Architects; 2005 Honor Award, Maryland Chapter, AIA; 2005 Honor Award, Boston Society of Architects; 2005 Honor Award, Northern Virginia Chapter, AIA

Photography: © Alan Karchmer; Michael G. Stewart; Ron Solomon

SHARE +